

Job Description

Experienced Building Surveyor (chartered or near chartered)
Salary: negotiable
Office: Shenfield

The Organisation

A specialist building surveying practice that has rapidly developed a reputation for delivering a high-quality service and reliability, with a personal approach and positive attitude. With offices in both Central London & Shenfield, we service the whole Greater London area and the South East, but also work with clients throughout the UK.

The Role

A rare opportunity for an experienced (chartered or nearly chartered) Building Surveyor to work for a private practice based in our Shenfield Office has been made available due to increased workload and company growth. This is a perfect position for a surveyor who has the ability and passion to progress their career within a multi-faceted company with drive, ambition and quality staff. This is also a unique opportunity for someone who is looking to be based locally but still with the connections and opportunities of working in the London market.

The Individual

Ideally you will be an enthusiastic building surveyor with experience covering duties such as project management/contract administration, building surveys, party wall, dilapidations, licence to alter and condition reports. You will be working in various sectors, which will include residential and commercial and will be expected to hit the ground running.

In Return

In return you will gain a competitive salary, be rewarded for performance and have the opportunity to progress your career at a fast pace. If you are interested to hear more about this impressive opportunity please get in touch with Caroline Vowles on 01277 223594 or Christian Howe on 020 3102 7701 or send your CV to info@howecs.co.uk.
